

IH London

Our Young Learners centre in London is available from 2017, based at the University of Westminster's modern Marylebone campus, students will enjoy English classes in the morning and afternoon cultural excursions and activities making the most of the exciting capital city.

University of Westminster, London

The University of Westminster has a tradition of educating stretching back more than 175 years. It currently has more than 20,000 students on their undergraduate, postgraduate and professional courses with students from over 150 different countries making it one of the largest and most diverse international student bodies of any UK University.

Situated on Marylebone Road opposite Baker Street Underground Station IH London Young Learner Centre offers excellent transport links around London as well as being close to the tranquillity of Regent's Park.

The campus is very safe, with a secure 24 hour reception situated at both the main entrance and the entrance to the accommodation – Marylebone Hall.

Marylebone Hall is a modern 21 storey building attached to the University, each floor holds two clusters of six flats and each room has a single bed, desk, wardrobe, storage space as well as private ensuite facilities.

There is a Common Room within the accommodation with a television, pool table and games table which students are free to use.

Rooms are cleaned every day and bed linen changed once a week there is also a card operated laundrette within the accommodation and International House staff are happy to assist students in using the laundrette.

Healthy food for hungry minds

Meals are provided in the university's large dining room where students serve themselves from a buffet with a variety of hot and cold dishes. Three meals are served each day including plenty of salads, fruit and juices.

Light refreshments and drinks are available throughout the day.

We can also cater for special dietary requirements