

St Giles Juniors Boston

Our centre is based at Suffolk University, right in the heart of Boston’s historic downtown, also known as the Beacon Hill neighbourhood. It’s the ideal location for exploring the city and surrounding attractions, including Harvard University, Fenway Park, and the Boston Freedom trail.

Boston is a city with a rich American heritage, and our centre gives students the chance to experience it for themselves.

Although just minutes from important historical sites like Faneuil Hall, Boston Common, and the Old State House, the university itself is extremely modern, with high-quality classrooms and bedrooms. Offering a great range of local excursions, this centre is ideal for students who want a taste of American city life.
